

I, _____, as the parent/guardian do give permission for my daughter, _____, to participate in Girls' Choir of Wilmington for the Fall (year) _____ activities and Spring (year) _____ semesters.

General information

Date of Birth _____ Height _____ Weight _____

Medical conditions we need to be aware of _____

Food allergies _____

I grant permission to GCW volunteers to administer the over-the-counter medications I have checked below and the parent-supplied medications I have specified (which must be supplied in the original packaging with pre-printed dosing instructions). I understand that only manufacturer-recommended dosages will be given unless a physician's order is provided. GCW does not accept responsibility for any adverse reactions to the checked over-the-counter medications. I also authorize a Girls' Choir of Wilmington representative to consent for any medical treatment deemed necessary for my daughter. I agree to hold the Girls' Choir of Wilmington and any person acting on their behalf harmless from and civil, criminal and financial liabilities for any injuries or illness suffered by my daughter.

Over-the-counter medications

- antibiotic ointment
- antacid tablets
- ibuprofen (Motrin)
- diphenhydramine (Benadryl)
- hydrocortisone ointment
- acetaminophen (Tylenol)
- dimenhydrinate (Dramamine)
- pseudoephedrine HCl (Sudafed)

Parent-supplied medications

Medication/Use	Dosage	Times to be given

Insurance Information

Company _____ Policy # _____

ID# _____ Name of policy holder _____

Physician name _____ Phone # _____

Emergency contact (Name) _____ (Phone #) _____

Parent/Guardian Signature _____ Date _____

Phone # _____

CONSENT TO RECEIVE COMMUNION

The Girls' Choir of Wilmington often sings in Christian services and on occasion its members are invited to participate in an 'open' communion. We understand 'open' to mean there is no requirement of membership in any particular faith community, simply a belief in Jesus. GCW accepts the invitation to share communion as an honor and makes sure grape juice, not wine, is served. Whether by coming forward to receive the bread and dip it in the juice, or by having the elements served by the congregation, we want to be mindful of the reverence surrounding this ritual.

While GCW continues to grow in the diversity of its membership and with respect for the multi-cultural society we live in, we do not encourage members to participate in communion unless they have indicated their desire and understanding of the need to be respectful of this tradition. GCW also values similar invitations and experiences in other faith communities.

Please allow _____ to receive communion.

Signed : _____ Parent/Guardian.

PUBLICITY PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE

Choir photographs are taken from time to time and may be used for publicity purposes. Both formal and candid, they may appear in GCW brochures, on GCW social media, GCW website, performance programs, as well as newspapers, magazines, press releases, etc. By signing below, you are authorizing the use of your daughter's likeness in Girls' Choir publications.

Signed : _____ Parent/Guardian.

THE CHORISTER'S CODE

This Code of good behavior is designed for everyone's benefit and, therefore, each member of the GCW is asked to abide by its rules as follows:

I agree to:

- Be attentive in rehearsals and concerts; when not singing, sit quietly, listening and participating appropriately. Adhere to 'GCW Concert Etiquette'.
- Respect and listen to all in positions of authority, and do what is asked, when it is asked. Be kind and helpful to other members of the Choir especially those younger than myself.
- Conduct myself in a manner that will contribute to a sense of community among fellow choir members, therefore I know there is to be no bullying, physical or verbal; insulting language, swearing, name-calling or shouting.
- Not use tobacco, alcohol, or non-prescription controlled substances during Choir activities, to include the Tour.
- Dress appropriately and follow the dress code as specified for Choir and Tour events. If asked by a member of the GCW Board to change into appropriate clothing or modify my appearance (consistent with the image of GCW), I will comply.
- Return assigned music folder and music at the end of the season or when leaving choir

I understand that an infraction of these dress code or behavior rules may result in my immediate dismissal, return home at my expense from the Tour (to include fees for a chaperone, if necessary) and forfeiture of all Choir and Tour fees. I also understand that the charge for not returning my folder/music will be $50.

Signed: _____ Print Member Name: _____ Date _____

Signed: _____ Print Parent/Guardian Name: _____